

Welcome to the 2026 Lower Clarence Music Eisteddfod!

On behalf of the Lower Clarence Music Eisteddfod Association Committee, it is my absolute pleasure to welcome our competitors, teachers, families, and music lovers to our fourteenth annual eisteddfod.

This year, we are thrilled to bring our week-long celebration of the performing arts again to our venue at The River Rooms in Maclean.

This fantastic space will play host to an incredible showcase of talent across piano, instrumental, vocal, speech, and drama categories.

From our youngest "tiny tots" taking the stage for the very first time to our seasoned, mature-age performers, this week is all about fostering confidence, building self-esteem, and learning from one another.

An event of this scale is only possible through collective passion. I want to extend our heartfelt gratitude to our highly qualified adjudicators, our incredibly hard-working committee and volunteers, and our generous local sponsors—including the Clarence Valley Council—whose support keeps live performance thriving in our region.

To our performers: remember that the stage is a place of learning and joy. Take a deep breath, support your fellow artists, and enjoy every single moment of your performance.

To our audience: thank you for packing the house and lending your enthusiastic applause to these bright musicians and speakers.

Please join us throughout the week and make sure to secure your tickets for our spectacular Celebration Concert on Saturday, 27th June!

— Doug Towner, President/Secretary

Our canteen is open for tea, coffee, refreshments and home cooking (many thanks to our volunteer cooks), however, not during Section performances. Noise could disturb the performer.

As a support to this event, would you like to join the Lower Clarence Music Eisteddfod Association? Your membership means you can have input into the management of the Association. Application forms are available from the Admission Desk.
